MEMORANDUM FOR: DEPUTY FOR POLICY COORDINATION, SE
SUBJECT: Daily Progress Report, 10 June 1952

1. BQFIEND. A cable from Frankfurt reports that Captain Fred W. Pechin, assigned by the EUCOM Labor Service as a temporary replacement for Capt. Mangelly as Commander of the Albanian Guard Company, took over the company on 9 June. The Army will be requested to return Mangelly to the U. S. immediately for reassignment. (IN 49827)

A cable from [ ] reports that the leaflet raid planned as a substitute for the article drop, which S.I.S. had postponed at our request, will not take place until 20 June. This postponement is due to a delay in the printing of leaflets. (IN 49843)

[ ] reports that the FIEND and VALUABLE Liaison Officers to HCPA are studying additional reports from Athens of the fights which took place in the refugee camp at Lavrion. The British have proposed that HCPA officials George Cogh and Vasil Andoni be sent to Athens to mediate in the affair. Upon concurrence from Athens the two officials will be dispatched from Rome with instructions to restore peace between the Balli Kombetar and Legitimists. (IN 49721)
